

Progress on Pennsylvania Rubric: Level 3 Name: _____

	Meets: 3	Progressing: 2	Not Meets: 1	Advanced: 4
PRODUCT
W1: Write opinion piece	Presentation is focused and on topic. Argument is well supported and includes relevant details. Information is presented in an organized, logical manner.	Presentation is somewhat focused. Argument is somewhat supported and includes relevant details. Information is somewhat presented in an organized manner.	Presentation is not focused or on topic. Argument is not supported and does not include relevant details. Information is not presented in an organized manner.	Presentation is focused and argument is thoroughly developed. Supporting information is all relevant and makes argument truly convincing.
RI2: Identifies main/important ideas and details relevant to lens SS Standard	Evidence of sufficient information from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • class notes • field trip data • presentations • survey • GAP report 	Little evidence of information from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • class notes • field trip data • presentations • survey • GAP report 	No evidence of information from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • class notes • field trip data • presentations • survey • GAP report 	Ample evidence of sufficient information weaved seamlessly through slide(s).
W5: Revises and edits writing, including seeking adult/peer advice	Final product shows clear evidence of planning, revising and editing.	Final product shows some evidence of planning, revising, and editing.	Final product shows little to no evidence of planning, revising, and editing.	Final product is enhanced by self directed, ongoing revision and editing for content and quality.
SL4: Recount facts, details, speaking clearly	Presenter sounds confident and shows clear understanding of business. Makes eye-contact with audience and maintains appropriate posture.	Presenter is confident at times and shows a partial understanding of business. Sometimes makes eye-contact with audience and does not maintain appropriate posture.	Presenter lacks confidence and seems unsure of topic and presentation. Does not maintain appropriate posture.	Presenter shows deep and thorough understanding of business. Makes eye-contact with audience and maintains appropriate posture.
SL 6: Produce/speak in complete sentences to provide details and clarification	Speaks clearly and loudly.	Does not consistently speak clearly and loudly.	Does not speak clearly and loudly.	Presenter speaks exudes confidence and speaks clearly and enthusiastically.
RI 4: Use 3 content specific words correctly  word bank is on planning page	3 content specific words were used correctly.	2 content specific words were used correctly	1 content specific word was used correctly. -- or -- Some were used, but they were not used correctly.	4 or more content words were used correctly and were weaved seamlessly into the presentation.